Dear Stockholm Art Fair Friends and Artists:

Due to the continued uncertainty around COVID-19 virus and unknown public park restrictions for July, we have made the difficult decision to cancel our Stockholm Art Fair festivities on July 18, 2020.

Thank you for your continued understanding and patience through this process. This comes with great sadness and frustration on the heels of last year's cancellation due to dangerous weather, and yet it is time to make the good and prudent decision to cancel this year as well. Our primary concern will always be for everyone's safety and the health of our village, artists and visitors. Please note that all exhibiting artists that were in the process of jurying this year will not have any funds due for SAF2020, whether a new or returning exhibitor and will be notified accordingly.

What Stockholm Art Fair supporters can do:

Ongoing artist support: We ask our Stockholm Art Fair followers to keep supporting the artists they admire by visiting their websites and social media. Many artists have already developed innovative ways to get their art to you in this time of crisis and isolation. We are compiling a list of our artist applicants for the last two years along with their contact information on our stockholmartfair.org website. Please check back soon.

Mark your calendar for Saturday, July 17, 2021: Our 48th Annual Stockholm Art Fair

In the meantime, our lovely Stockholm Village Park will continue to rejuvenate this summer, just as we hope each of you will too. We are already looking forward to the opportunity to be together again on a beautiful summer day in Stockholm Village on Lake Pepin.

Stay safe and be well.

Kindest regards,

Kristin Smith Procter, Director
